

Mariquita Farm

Community Supported Agriculture

Mariquita Farm is a small family farm located near Watsonville, CA. We grow organic specialty vegetables, greens, strawberries, and herbs for our members in Silicon Valley, the Peninsula, and San Francisco and for many restaurants in San Francisco.

- Locally grown organic food tastes better, is better for you, preserves genetic diversity, is GMO-free, supports local small sustainable farms, builds community, supports a clean environment and benefits wildlife.
- Try new recipes from our weekly newsletter, Ladybug Postcard, and read interesting stories and notes from the farm.
- Pick up your produce at a drop off site near you. Check our website (www.mariquita.com) for the nearest pick up point.
- Cost: 4-Week New Member Trial Subscription, $88; 9-week subscription, $198
